FEMME FESTIVAL

THE 3RD OF JULY 2004, MARKS THE START OF WHITE ACRES FIRST EVER LADIES FESTIVAL, WHICH HAS BEEN CREATED TO CATER FOR THE GROWING NUMBER OF FEMALE ANGLERS ...

The new ladies only festival is intended to become a another established aspect of the White Acres calendar, and Clint Elliott is excited at the prospect of catering for the loyal female anglers who visit the park and in the past have had to compete against the men.

The top women anglers don't find that a problem often beating the guys but it can be intimidating for the casual female angler and Clint hopes to attract newcomers too with the incentive of some pre competition coaching.

'Our idea is to encourage all abilities from total beginners to world-class anglers,' said Clint. 'The week will start with a coaching day on the Monday with the anglers in groups of four or five and they will be assisted with any problems through out the day.

'On the Tuesday the groups will take part in a practice team match with help on hand before the three-day festival is staged from Wednesday to Friday inclusive,' he revealed. Entry fees are £80 per angler but with the winner taking home a cool £1000 it's got to be worth having a go...
